FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q) Do I need to submit a separate entry form every time I spend $100?

A) No. Save your receipts and then staple them all to one entry form. Although, you may want to separate them into two entries to enter both the November 28th and the December 29th drawings.

Q) I submitted my receipts, but now I spent another $100. Can I get another entry?

A) Yes! You can submit your receipts as many times as you would like over the course of the entry period, but be sure to read the answer to the next question to understand the details!

Q) Will you add all of my receipts together?

If you submit all your receipts on one entry form, then the answer is yes. $100 spent at various locations would give you one entry (fuel and grocery purchases equal $.50/$1.00). However, if you submit numerous entries over the entry period, the math will be done for whatever receipts are attached to each form. We are not responsible for combining other receipts from other entries. We encourage you to submit all of your receipts with one entry form for November purchases to be entered into the November 28th drawing and one for December purchases to be entered into the December 29th drawing.

Q) What does “fuel and grocery purchase equal $.50/$1.00” mean?

A) This means, that if you spend $100 on groceries, only $50 or 50% of the value can be claimed towards the $100.00.
